

Curriculum vitae

PD Dr. Andreas Block MBA

born September 13., 1966 in Hamburg

Nationality: German

Married, 2 children

1986 high school exam in Hamburg
1986 - 1992 Medicine at the „Universität Hamburg“
1988 Physikum
1992 board exam in medicine

Clinical curriculum

1993 - 1994 civil service as resident at the department of medicine, „Universitäts - Krankenhauses Eppendorf“, director: H. Greten 8.98-2.99 clinical fellowship at the department for oncology at the „Kantonsspital der Universität Basel“, director: R. Herrmann
1.01-12.01 clinical fellowship at the department for oncology and hematology, director: D.K. Hossfeld (1 year)
10.02-10.04 clinical fellowship at the department for interdisciplinary endoscopy, director: N. Soehendra
6.04 Board exam Internal Medicine
7.04 Development of an outpatient clinic for hereditary gi tumors since 4.06 current position at the department of oncology and hematology, 2.09 Board certified Hematologist and Oncologist 6.09 Board certified Gastroenterologist and Hepatologist since 2015 Board member of the Hamburg Ethics Commission

Current clinical responsibilities since 2000 Senior consultant hereditary gastrointestinal cancer since 10.03 Senior consultant endoscopist since 6.04 consultant (internal medicine) for the surgical admissions unit since 10.08 Head Clinical Trials Department since 9.09 Oncologist in charge University Cancer Center Hamburg

Scientific curriculum

1989 - 1992 employed by the „Zentrum für molekulare Neurobiologie der Universität Hamburg“, director: T. Jentsch, 'cloning of a family of voltage-gated chloride ion channels'
1993 doctorate thesis magna cum laude „Impact of sialisation of apolipoprotein B-100 on binding and internalization of Low Density Lipoproteinen in to the liver“ 1994-1996 postdoctoral fellowship sponsored by „Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft“ “Gene Therapy approaches for malignant diseases” at the Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas, Dept Cell Biology, Center for Gene Therapy, director: Savio L.C. Woo 10.96 Establishment of a working group „adenoviral gene therapy of gastrointestinal tumors“ 1999 – 2001 vice president ethics commission for in vivo studies at the „Behörde für Arbeit, Gesundheit und Soziales der Freien- und Hansestadt Hamburg“ since 2007 Principal Investigator Gem vs. Mito in pancreatic cancer multicenter clinical trial (I. line) 11.07 Habilitation in Medicine
2.08 Associate Professor in Internal Medicine
2011-2013 Master of Business Administration (MBA) Health Management at the University of Hamburg, School of Business, Economics and Social Sciences, score A-

Stipends and awards

1994 Stipend „Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG)“
1999 Stipend „Deutsche Krebshilfe“
2000 Stipend „Dinse – Foundation“
2000 Gastrointestinal Oncology Award, 55. annual meeting of the DGVS
2001 Young Masters Award of the German Society for Internal Medicine
2001 research grant FB Medicine / UKE
2002 research grant FB Medicine / UKE
2002 Konjetzny-Award for Cancer Research
2008 Werner Otto Grant
2012 EU FP7 Grant Chemosensitivity